Whoever Reads, Needs

"BOOKS ON TRIAL"

The Magazine, "BOOKS ON TRIAL," a guide to Good Reading, shows WHAT'S WORTH READING and what's OBJECTIONABLE or UNFIT.

Each issue Appraises or Reviews about 150 Current books, Catholic and Secular.

More than a hundred Appraisers, Readers and Reviewers contribute. Review Excerpts or "Charts" by its Editor, John C. Tully, appear regularly in the Register, Our Sunday Visitor, The Tablet, The Monitor, The Catholic Mirror and other leading Diocesan newspapers.

"BOOKS ON TRIAL" should be at hand in every SCHOOL, COLLEGE and PARISH LIBRARY AND IN EVERY PUBLIC LIBRARY and in every HOME where books are read.

THERE IS NOTHING ELSE LIKE IT for HIGH SCHOOL and JUVENILE BOOKS, as well as for ADULT books, and for lists of all the latest leading PAMPHLETS.

This Increasing Purpose

That we may ourselves merit, and that we may inspire our associates to merit, the trust which is reposed in us.

Toward the realization of this end our business life is directed. We believe that candles for religious use must contain more than choice ingredients, though upon those we insist. We believe that our candles must be more than honestly crafted, though upon that score, too, we are adamant. There is yet another requirement . . . another ingredient. The Sacred candle must reflect the integrity of its makers. To this increasing purpose we have dedicated ourselves for nearly a century.

The picture shows the hand painted Metal Curtain and another exclusive Summit feature, the Revolving Floor. The Metal Curtain is made of heavy gauge sheet bronze, gold plated, and may be decorated with an oil painting in any desired design.

The Revolving Floor rotates the entire interior at the touch of a finger to the smoothly notched rim, thus bringing any of the sacred vessels conveniently to the front of the Tabernacle within easy reach of the Celebrant. This feature is available in some of the larger sizes of Agnus Dei Tabernacles.

NUMBER 303
Patented

This supremely beautiful Agnus Dei Tabernacle was designed for the International Eucharistic Congress held in Manila, in 1937. Circular top piece bears the words: SANCTUS DOMINUS DEUS SABAOTH.

All ornamental work is richly hand chased and highly finished in satin gold bronze, with silver oxidized ornamentations. Holy Ghost emblem in satin gold bronze; the I.H.S. is finished in highly polished gold bronze.

Cardinal Red leather on background of front and rear panels and in back of the inscription on the cresting. The crown with top panels is removable. Ask for new, post-war catalog of all of our metal Ecclesiastical Appointments.

AGNUS DEI TABERNACLES

We are happy to announce that we are again manufacturing AGNUS DEI TABERNACLES. For the convenience of our cl'ents we have re-opened executive offices and a showroom at 154 Nassau Street, New York City, directly opposite City Hall. A cordial welcome awaits your visit.

To obey war-time restrictions and to maintain our reputation as the producers of tabernacles that are the finest in quality and workmanship, we suspended all manufactur'ng more than four years ago, and can now look back upon those difficult days with pride in the fact that during the war not one AGNUS DEI Tabernacle was made, of any material. As we are able to procure materials, we are first executing reservation orders for tabernacles only, which have been carefully recorded in the order of receipt. By mid-summer of 1946 we will also be able to make other renowned Summit ecclesiastical appointments. As deliveries may be slow for the time being, we ask your indulgence.

We wish here to express our appreciation for the reservations received during war-time and to assure you that your trust in us and our work will not have been in vain because we intend to maintain the same high standards of workmanship as in the past and all materials will be of the same high quality and thickness as heretofore. . . . We anticipate the pleasure of your continued patronage and will gladly send you our latest, complete catalog of all Summit productions.

REPEAT CAMPAIGNS

One of the best evidences of the satisfaction with which our services are regarded is to be had in the number of repeat campaigns entrusted to our direction. Thus, for instance, we have conducted five campaigns in behalf of various clients in Atlanta, Georgia; four campaigns at Easton, Pennsylvania; four campaigns at Memphis, Tennessee,—all within the space of one year.

Then, again, our campaign in behalf of the Benedictine Hospital at Kingston was preceded by a campaign we were privileged to direct for that same institution in 1928, on which occasion an over-subscription of 77 percent was registered. Allentown Hospital likewise is a repeat campaign, following upon one previously directed with a $600,000 objective, which was over-subscribed by $45,000. Beaver Valley Hospital also has been served by us successfully on a previous occasion.

Our Bureau of Catholic Finance was established in 1919 for closer cooperation with the Church in handling its financial problems. You are invited to write for full information and recommendations of clients. If advised of the character of the need, a consultation may be arranged at your convenience and without entailing any obligation.

This new Sanctuary, with complete decoration, the ecclesiastical beauty of which is apparent in the above reproduction of the artist's preliminary rendition, was designed by Professor Lelio de Ranieri in collaboration with J. M. Mosher, Architect, for St. Cecilia's Church of Pawtucket, R. I., Rev. Mathias A. Hebert. The Altar will be finished in a combination of fine imported marbles with Stations of the Cross and Altar appointments executed in bronze with repousse enrichments. A Pulpit of marble, wrought iron and hand-carved oak rounds out an installation which, in every liturgical detail, reflects the high standards of Bernardini craftsmanship.

No Pastor ever regretted installing a DAR-CO RUBBER FLOOR

With so many colors to choose from, and an Architectural Staff ready to collaborate in designing a Church Floor which will be artistically correct, Pastors are invited to take advantage of Doig flooring installation facilities. There is nothing more ideal, or longer lasting, than a DAR-CO RUBBER FLOOR. Our Vice President, Mr. Arthur G. Archer, with a lifetime of experience in the Church-flooring field, will be glad to call, measure the area to be covered, help you in deciding on patterns, color schemes, etc., and submit an estimate without obligation on your part.

There's only ONE SCREEN-O-FANE on the market!

Since its introduction by William Doig & Son, this patented scientific confessional device has seen imitations come and go. Only Screen-o-fane gives two-way protection against respiratory germs and offensive breath while at the same time clarifying the voice. They cost only $10.00 each and are easily attached to the grille. Pastors are at liberty to try one free for 30 days.

IS YOUR CHURCH ONLY HALF COVERED?

It could be!

Suppose it burned tonight. What would it cost to rebuild or repair it? Materials are hard to get and cost more; labor is scarce, takes longer to do the job, costs more. Construction prices have skyrocketed until they are two thirds more than they were ten or twelve years ago.

Has insurance on your church properties been increased that much in the same past dozen years? Or is it dangerously low, covering at 1935 or 1940 values?

That's an important question to those responsible for the financial affairs of their church or institution. If you're uncertain, talk it over with one of our local Agents, without obligation. Play safe — and remember, under-insurance is just as dangerous financially as fire itself.

Insurance Company of North America, founded 1792, oldest American stock fire and marine insurance company, heads the North America Companies which meet the public demand for practically all types of Fire, Marine, Automobile, Casualty and Accident insurance. Sold only through your own Agent. North America Agents are listed in local Classified Telephone Directories.

Interior of St. Casimir's in 1939

This view of the Epistle side gives a glimpse of the magnificent murals.

High altar is replica of Donatello's masterpiece in St. Anthony Basilica, Padua.

Granite stone of blended shades was used to house the Venetian mosaic panel of the outdoor Stations of the Cross at Loyola Retreat House, Morristown, N. J., Rev. Louis F. Ott, S. J., Director.

RELIGIOUS ART

—is exemplified to a sublime degree in the decorations just completed by Tommasi artists at St. Casimir's Church, Baltimore, Md., Rev. James Cholewka, O.F.M. Conv., Rector.

The installation in 1939 of a replica of Donatello's world-famed bronze, marble and mosaic altar, was followed by the erection of the Purgatory Shrine in the chapel at the Epistle side of the vestibule, marble side-altars, shrines, the pulpit, and the entire decoratioh of the church.

In addition to forty large murals, there are two great paintings in the ceiling of the nave; one, measuring 67 ft. by 17 ft., depicts the Triumph of the Franciscan Orders, the other, 37 ft. by 11 ft. in size, depicts Pentecost. The flat ceiling presented a technical problem which was treated skillfully in the manner of Tiepolo, the great master of the 17th Century.

The Purgatory Shrine is executed in carved marble with Venetian mosaic panel.

is the Centenary Year of

BURNS OATES & WASHBOURNE

LIMITED

Publishers to the Holy See

IN THE year 1847, James Burns, the Methodist publisher, following his friend John Newman, was received into the Church. He cancelled all his existing contracts, and began the publishing business known as Burns & Oates. Today this business is known throughout the world. It includes among its authors Father George Burns, of the Society of Jesus, and on its board, as literary director, Mr. Thomas F. Burns. Both George and Tom are direct descendants of the founder.

Apart from its well-known publishing activities, the Company is renowned for its Church Furniture. It provides, subject to availability of materials and labor, anything from a medal to a complete cathedral.

During the recent war, Burns Oates had the privilege of supplying hundreds of portable altars to Service Chaplains of the United States forces, as well as many special orders for Church Furniture. May we hope, in peace as well as war, to be able to serve Catholic interests in the United States.

Our Wood Carvers are not unknown. They work to no time-table, nor to a price schedule. But they have produced many great works of art for customers in the United States, and their family tradition, as indeed the family, bound up in the fortunes of Burns & Oates, lives on from generation to generation.

Recently the company has established a Church Contracts Department, with a first class panel of architects, draftsmen and craftsmen.

Burns Oates avoid slogans, but they claim to be able to supply every material Catholic need, whether for clergy or for laity.

THE SMITHSONIAN SERIES

An Official Record of the Wealth of Information Assembled at the Institution as a Result of Its Wide-Ranging Scientific Investigations

Brings to Your Home a Great Treasury of Man's Knowledge and Achievement

FOR NEARLY ONE HUNDRED YEARS, the SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION has functioned as a great world headquarters of man's knowledge. It has amassed the fruit of human achievement and discovery from all corners of the globe—and made them available to all. Its researchers have made it virtually the scientific arm of our Government, under whose trusteeship it functions. And its vast accumulation of treasures, covering virtually every field of man's progress, attracts millions of visitors yearly to its famed halls in Washington.

Now THE SMITHSONIAN SERIES brings to your chairside, in word and picture, the vast storehouse of knowledge that is the SMITHSONIAN INSTITUTION. It brings to you, to your family, to your work and to your hours of self-improvement those things which in the opinion of the scholars of the Institution are of importance to the greatest number of people.

Each of these twelve volumes opens another door of the Institution to you: each volume reveals a wonderful new world of information.

You learn how the sun's rays may be used for cooking, for heating the domestic water supply, and for power. You learn how our planet has been a target for "celestial bombs" for ages. You read the fascinating story of the rarest of earth's own minerals—gem stones. The volumes on Insects, on Wild Animals, on Birds, Fish and Plant Lore reveal to you the amazing secrets of all living things. Between the volumes Man from the Farthest Past and Great Inventions you learn of man's progress from the beginning of time until today.

Leaders in all walks of life subscribed a total of $437,500.00 in advance to see this work published — thus making possible the present extremely low priced edition. This is a new printing, completely up-to-date. Contains 5000 pages of useful knowledge; 1800 illustrations, 115 in full color. The twelve volumes are durably and beautifully bound.

4 to 8

—an important time

From Grade 4 to Grade 8 is a vital time in a child's school life.

His educational needs have grown, expanded, taken on new depth, and make it vital that he develop the "look it up" habit, that he have at his disposal a reference work designed exclusively for his young, developing mind.

Britannica Junior is the only encyclopaedia designed specifically for the elementary school.

Britannica Junior's checked vocabulary — like that of a text-book — is graded to elementary level. Sentence structure and length, subject matter, scope of information — all are scaled to the elementary pupil's needs.

Twelve beautiful volumes of fascinating, informative material — colorful action types of illustration — a Ready-Reference volume that develops the habit of using an index — all combine to make learning easier for the pupil.

Britannica Junior embodies the same superior standards of content and format — the same authenticity — which characterize Encyclopaedia Britannica, the world's best known reference library.

You'll want your pupils to enjoy the advantages of Britannica Junior. Write for further information, and a useful booklet: "How to Use Reference Books." No obligation, of course.

The World's Friendliest Club . . . Admission 5c

As American as Independence Day—the soda fountain is the very expression of the democracy that is America. There—over a Coca-Cola—you meet your friends, shoot the breeze, catch up on local news, add your two-bits worth to world opinion. There our young folks gather in the wholesome atmosphere of friendly refreshment. There every day new friendships are made and old friendships are renewed. Friendliness and Coca-Cola go together like bread and butter. Today, tonight, pause to refresh yourself and be sociable over a Coke at your favorite fountain. It's the world's friendliest club—and the price of admission is only a nickel.

A CATHOLIC BABY'S RECORD

A distinctly Catholic baby book, edited by Rev. Harold A. Pfeiffer, S.J., is this delightful collection of drawings and memories. Each page is a picture in itself, so real are the sketches which are lithographed in beautiful colors. Suitable for either boys or girls, this book will delight any mother's heart.

Cuddly, bright and gay babies, angels, roses, Our Lady, and many other entrancing subjects fill its pages. From the family tree, through birth, Baptism, the first Christmas, prayers, birthdays, first Confession, Holy Communion, and Confirmation, as well as the other usual "firsts," the baby goes merrily on, growing in age and grace—right into the hearts of those who will read and see the record.

It is the answer to "a gift for the baby," "a gift for the mother," "a Catholic gift."

THE ILLUSTRATED CATECHISM

By Rev. Aloysius J. Heeg, S.J.

A unique presentation of the official Revised Edition of the Baltimore Catechism by one of the foremost catechists of our day.

It will delight the child as well as the teacher. It presents the catechism in an interesting and attractive way, emphasizes what is really important, and makes an authoritative text easy to understand, apply, and remember.

The full-page, four-color pictures have been especially designed to impress the leading thought in each lesson.

Each question and answer is numbered and worded exactly as in the No. 1 Baltimore Catechism, but is preceded and followed by clear, simple explanations. Original diagrams, brackets, and equations clarify points that are ordinarily considered difficult to understand.

Published in three parts: I, The Apostles' Creed. II, The Commandments. III, The Sacraments. Now ready.

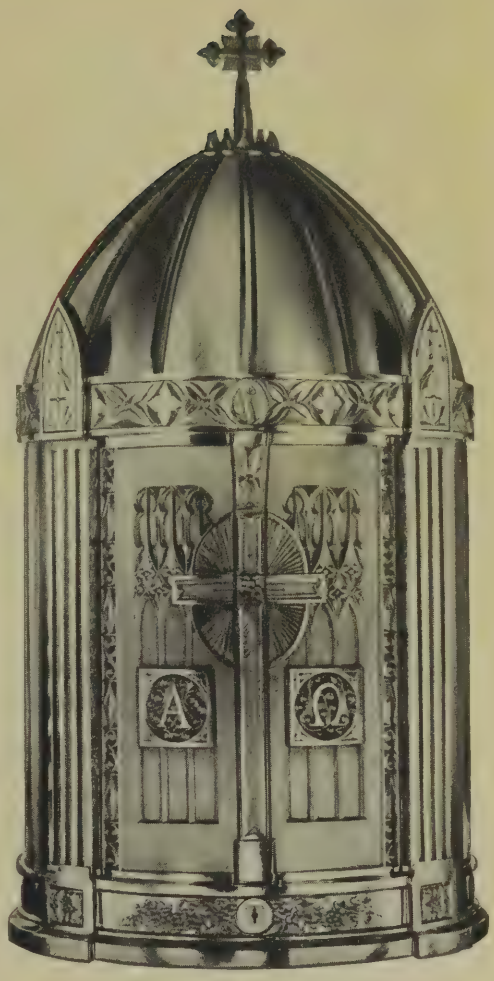
THE EUCHARISTIC TABERNACLE SAFE

is constructed of heavy cast bronze and heavy rolled steel. Each Safe has an air chamber between the inner and outer walls which is lined with asbestos.

It has no open grooves in the front, nor hooks, or latches in the doorway. Both inner and outer doors close noiselessly.



The locking device is of a special construction so that the lock cannot be picked or opened with a master key.

BURGLAR ALARM

An electric burglar alarm can be installed in any of our tabernacles. The alarm can be made to ring in either the Sacristy or Rectory as soon as anyone tries to open the doors, even the least fraction of an inch.

THE EUCHARISTIC TABERNACLE SAFE

The Eucharistic Tabernacle Safe has no doors to pull open by hand. A mere turn of a strong bronze and steel key not only unlocks but opens the doors. More than 4,250 altars in not only the United States but many foreign countries have this Tabernacle.

LITURGICAL TABERNACLE SAFE
Made in a special large size
Design No. 301

APPROVED AND RECOMMENDED

The Sacred Congregation of Rites has approved and recommended the Eucharistic Tabernacle Safe. It occupies a prominent position in the magnificent altar of the Pauline Chapel of the Vatican. Consult your local Church Goods Dealer, Architect or Altar Builder.

The Eucharistic Tabernacle Safe is made in fifteen standard designs. It can be made in any special design submitted by your architect and can be made to fit any Altar opening. A bronze rear door can also be installed and the Tabernacle can be enlarged to accommodate eight to twelve Ciboria. It can be finished in any color to harmonize with the woodwork or metalwork.

Write for Our New Catalog—We repair and refinish old candlesticks, candelabra, crucifixes, and church metalware of all kinds. Chalices, Ciboria, and Ostensoria gold plated and burnished. All articles shipped to us for repair and refinishing are insured against all loss until returned to you.

Beauty, Dignity, Protection

FOR CHURCH PROPERTY . .

ANCHOR-WELD Iron Fences and Gates combine dignity with the strength and permanence of Electrically Welded construction. Made in many beautiful designs, they form a setting of striking beauty for Cemeteries, Churches, Rectories, Parochial Schools, Colleges, Church Institutions. They provide positive protection against tramps, trespassers, loiterers and persons taking "short cuts" across Church property. Extra heavy steel pickets and rails are electrically welded under tremendous pressure to give permanent structural strength without ugly cross-bracing. Anchor Chain Link Fences are used by many Catholic Churches and Institutions along boundary lines, around playgrounds, lawns and in similar locations. They keep out vandals from cemetery grounds and protect valuable church property. Made in heights of from 3 feet 6 inches to 10 feet. Anchor Chain Link Fences get their name from the deep-driven "Anchors" which keep the posts fast in the ground, the fence permanently in line.

Come apart..

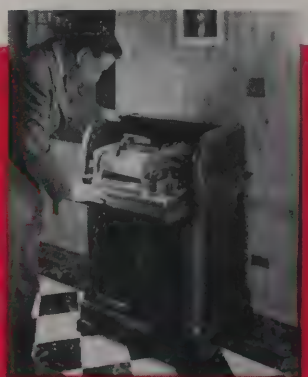
Let the Song of a Genuine Deagan Carillon be the Voice of Your Church to Give It New Beauty and Expressiveness, Extend Its Influence and Add to Its Missionary Appeal

To weary travelers who have lost their way in the confusion of a changing world, the song of a Deagan Carillon is a divinely inspired voice irresistible in its appeal.

Persistently and persuasively the music of the bells beckons such men and women to "come apart and rest with Me awhile."

Week after week it directs them to seek, in the hallowed precincts of your Church, the peace and contentment for which they yearn. Day after day it lends new meaning to the term Church Militant by carrying the message of Christ, on the wings of sacred song, to all the community.

Of course your Carillon will be a true Carillon—in keeping with the unchanging truths upon which the Church is founded.



It will pour forth living music without distortion and without the aid of amplification, loud speaker horns or other arti-

Because of the compactness of tubular bells, a Deagan Carillon entails no special tower re-building or re-inforcing problems.

The quarter-hour time peal (which may be silenced at night) makes the Church, more intimately than before, part of the community.

Deagan Carillons may be manually played from organ console or special keyboard, or automatically sounded by the ingenious Electric Player.

MARK 6-31

GENUINE CARILLONS ★ HARMONICALLY TUNED

ficial means. It will be rich with the symbolism which for centuries has been associated with genuine bells.

The bells of a Deagan Carillon are real bells, made of the finest bell metal and fashioned tubular in form to give them remarkable compactness, maximum volume and carrying power, and superior tone. They are harmonically tuned by an exclusive process perfected in 1938 that completely removes the suggestion of discord which had always characterized bell music and limited its potentials. Harmonic tuning makes possible the sounding together of as many as five Deagan bells, forming a symphony of tone which for sheer loveliness has never before been approached.

It is because of these facts that Deagan Carillons are the most widely used carillons in the world—chosen as "The Memorial Sublime" by many of the country's most prominent citizens, installed in more than 400 churches and commended by distinguished authorities as the highest form of bell music. May we tell you more about them? . . . J. C. Deagan, Inc., 305 Deagan Building, 1770 Berteau Avenue, Chicago 13, Illinois.

Deagan has long been a standard source of supply for Altar Chimes. The electric chimes are sounded by keys placed in the steps of the altar.

Deagan manual Altar Chimes are known for the rich and reverent beauty of their tone.

Church Interiors Should Express the Positiveness of Catholicism

● Interiors designed by Alphonse M. Schmitt during the past 30 years in both old and new churches, indicate a combination of architectural skill and knowledge of ecclesiastical symbols necessary to express a positive effect in an artistic manner.

It takes that kind of ability to recognize the latent possibilities for improving a church interior, and determine what is needed to bring out the good points and overcome the negative ones. Two splendid examples of such work are illustrated here as created by Alphonse M. Schmitt.

Suggestions and estimates gladly submitted for Murals, Lighting Fixtures, Dossals, Mosaics, Decorations, Stained Glass, Wood, Metal and Marble Altars, and Statues of Wood and Marble.

● St. Charles Church, Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin; Very Rev. J. Eisenmann, Pastor.
A fifty-year-old church interior restyled with masses of color, creating new architectural values never before envisioned. Blue is the predominating tone, with green, rust rose, and wood tones for structural lines where none existed before. Walls in neutral structural tones.

● St. Leo Church Altar, Milwaukee, Wisconsin; Rt. Rev. Msgr. George Meyer, Pastor.
Altar beauty and character created with sculptured craftsmanship in Burgundy Rose Marble against a background of Red Levanto. Carved wood statue treated like old ivory. Candlesticks and crucifix of wood carved gold leaf.

COMPLETE CHAIN LINK FENCE

To meet the fencing requirements of churches, schools, cemeteries, and institutions, Continental has developed a wide range of structural variations in its Chain Link fence. The selection in styles, heights, types of top construction, gates and accessories makes it possible to select an ideal fence for any installation.

FABRIC OF KONIK STEEL

The wire fabric in Continental fence is made of KONIK steel for greater strength and rust resistance "clear through." KONIK* has high tensile strength and is tougher. This fabric carries a zinc coating applied by special process to insure uniformity and adhesion to the base steel. A uniform, bright finish enhances the appearance of Continental fence fabric. Wire is full gauge and woven in exact mesh.

POSTS AND FITTINGS

Continental fence has heavier, sturdier posts with improved brace construction. Top rails are joined by a special Inside-Outside coupling. Post caps and barbed wire arms are sturdy, heavier. Self-locking slots hold barb wire. New type lock pin eliminates bolts and nuts for fastening fabric to tension bands.

*U. S. PAT. No. 1874814

12 STYLES

Continental offers 12 styles of top construction. The illustrations above show three popular styles of Continental fence protecting church property. It is engineered for each specific job.

GATES

Strong, easily operated gates and locks. Single and double types with improved pivot type hinges. Manually or mechanically operated.

THE HOLY BIBLE

Letters received from foreign Missions and from out-of-the-way English speaking colonies speak of the need they have for the Douay Bible. A native of Africa, seldom visited by a Catholic Priest, writes, "Christianity without a Bible is like a farmer without his hoe." Yet here in civilized America, with over 23,000,000 Catholics the Bible is still not in every home.

The Third Plenary Council of Baltimore begged the Catholic people to read the HOLY BIBLE. "We hope," they said, "that no family can be found amongst us without a correct version of the Holy Scriptures." (Pastoral Letter of the Archbishops and Bishops of the United States.)

THE TASK OF INSURANCE

THERE is little difference between the tasks and the opportunities of insurance. Keeping pace with progress is an old story to "the industry that protects other industries." Along with the bright promises of modern science, many new and unlooked for hazards will doubtless develop, but science itself has been a potent tool used by property insurance underwriters and the various agencies of public safety.

It seems to me that the accomplishments of American idealism are very closely related to the accomplishments of American business. If that is so there is little to fear in the future if we maintain the same qualities to which our organization was dedicated ninety-three years ago. Any improvements in operating methods which may be required for the good of public service should be welcomed. Providing financial protection to meet the exact requirements of the insuring public must remain foremost in our endeavors.

People of the fire insurance business and of our own organization can look with pride upon the achievements of 1945, the Year of Victory. In common with every American citizen and every American business they were a part of the solid home front behind our victorious fighting men.

This report on the affairs of the company reflects the progress made in a year of national transition from war to peace.

Plan Now...

HAVE RAMBUSCH DEVELOP A PROGRAM OF PROGRESSIVE INTERIOR DECORATION

The accompanying illustrations of St. Agatha's Church, Brooklyn, give a rather comprehensive idea of planned interior decoration carried out by Rambusch over a period of years. The final result attained, a harmonious and successful interior, is due in no small part to the active cooperation of the clergy and architect with whom Rambusch always advises and consults on all phases of church decoration.

Plan Now...

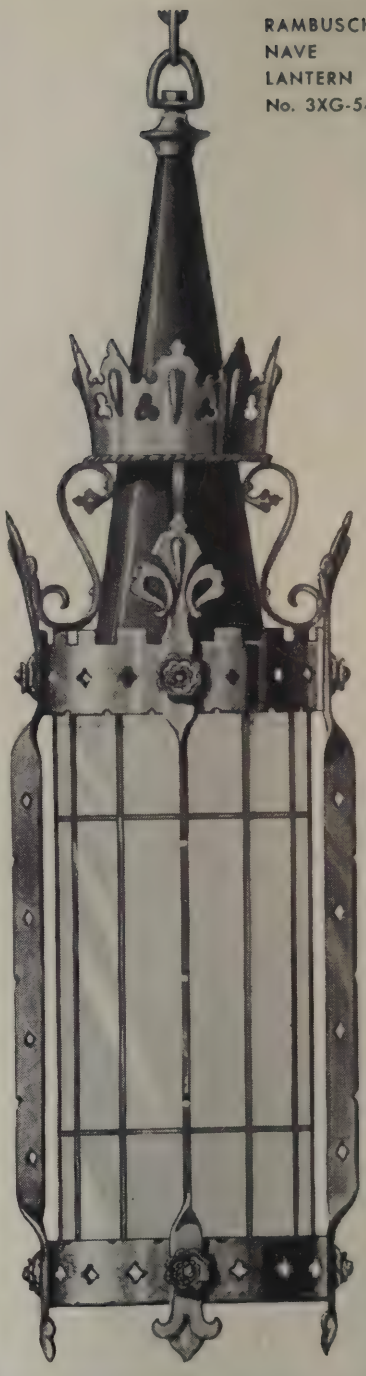
HAVE RAMBUSCH RELIGHT YOUR CHURCH INTERIOR

This Rambusch Lantern has been developed as the result of many years' experience in Church Interior Illumination. It incorporates the following important characteristics:

1. The upward light is limited to the amount necessary to illuminate the upper portion of the fixture and to give soft light on the ceiling.

2. Vertical structural members placed "on edge" to permit maximum horizontal light emission, at the same time giving a pleasing silhouette to the lantern.

3. Open bottom lantern. By omitting any bottom glass we have a fixture where all glass panels are placed vertically, hence there is no surface where dust will collect, and the fixtures will require a minimum of maintenance. The lamp is placed so high that it can never be seen at any normal angle from the floor.



4. The single lamp system is employed. This being more efficient and less costly than if several lamps were employed; moreover "lamp shadows" on the glass panels are avoided.

Note—We make a special diffusing shield which may be placed upon the side of the lamp facing the congregation. This cuts down to a minimum the brightness on the glass panels facing the congregation, while it directs a maximum of light in a forward and downward direction, hence no irritating lights hanging between the congregation and the chancel, and we accomplish a maximum of attention to the service.

If you are interested in reading a searching analysis of fundamental principles and latest practice in Church Lighting, write for our new free booklet.

After having lighted more than 1000 Churches Rambusch's designers and engineers have accumulated a wealth of information and experience in all phases of this subject. • Without obligation on your part you may have the benefit of this experience. On request we will send you our graph questionnaire. If you will have this filled out and returned to us with a few photographs, we will prepare and submit to you, a comprehensive proposal for an up-to-date lighting scheme. This will be complete with blueprint, illustrations of fixtures, descriptive specification and prices. • You will not be urged to buy and no one will call on you unless you so desire.

Editorial

RECORDING the year to year growth of the Catholic Church is always an honorable, never an easy task. During the past four years the work has been made doubly difficult. Serious restrictions, always present in wartime, handicapped the ordinary procedure of editing, typing and manufacture. As during similar periods in its long history—the Mexican War, the War between the States, the Spanish American War and World War I—the Directory continued to appear in spite of any obstacle. Now, in a world once again at peace, we take pleasure in presenting the 1946 Issue.

This, the 114th Annual Issue, is the first to carry a date line on its title page. In order to make the Directory a more accurate historical record for a specific period of time, corrections and revisions were restricted to those which occurred up to and including January 1, 1946. Thus the status of the entire Catholic Church is given as of a certain definite date—a fact which will be a boon to all historians and to those interested in comparative statistics.

The major event in the Catholic Church in the United States was, of course, the designation, in December 1945, of four American Cardinals. (See Chicago, Detroit, New York and St. Louis). The Holy Father has thus shown pleasing acknowledgment of the staunch spirit of Catholicism exemplified in this great country of ours. The Diocese of Omaha was made an Archdiocese and the Bishop, Most Rev. James H. Ryan, was raised to the Archiepiscopal dignity. On January 1, Alexandria was the only Episcopal See vacant.

Further refinements have been made both in Diocesan Recapitulations and in the large General Recapitulation, all designed to present a more accurate picture of the status and the growth of the Church. Among the most important of these is the redesignation of the Religious Vacation Schools. This has been broadened to include all schools or classes, other than in parochial or private elementary and high schools, in which religious instruction is given. Due to this more detailed breakdown, the total number of youths under Catholic Instruction has shown a considerable increase.

All this, in addition to the steady and assured growth of the Church, has enlarged the editorial section of the Directory by 48 pages over last year's, but in spite of all obstacles, the Official Catholic Directory is still the most complete, as well as the largest, church directory ever published in any part of the world.

Business Services for Subscribers

The Directory is made possible in part by the loyal support of its subscribers, who, by their subscriptions, are assured of the latest available records. No work of such magnitude, however, could be supported by subscriptions alone. The front and rear sections of the Directory are open to the advertisements of reputable business concerns. They are not, however, open to any advertiser. It has always been our pride that Directory advertisers are carefully selected rather than solicited.

Now that the period of reconversion and reconstruction is in full swing, the advertisements will be of greater service than ever before, since they are invaluable aids in filling every need, and especially in planning post-war improvements and long-neglected repairs. The number of advertisers soliciting your patronage through the Catholic Directory is greater now than ever. While many have been represented for almost a century, 55 new advertisers appear this year for the first time. The Classified Index and Buyers Guide, at the front of the volume, is larger and more comprehensive than ever; so you may use this with confidence. (Convenient, postpaid inquiry cards face the back cover).

To all who use this book I send greeting, with the sincere hope that this 114th Annual Issue will be the first in a new Era of continued peace and true Christianity.

HINTS AND HELPS

For those who use the Catholic Directory

The exact page location of the various sections of the Directory mentioned in this Foreword may be found by consulting the alphabetical index on page vii.

A Public Service

Each year the editors of the Official Catholic Directory seek new ways of being of service to those who support it. Although the time may never be reached when the book will contain all that it could possibly have to be perfect in this respect, the latter is a goal towards which we are constantly aiming. After all, the Directory, in a broad sense, is no private enterprise carried on for purposes of personal profit. It is a work supported by its users as a public service and, as such, the format, arrangement and editorial features must be directed towards the convenience and needs of the public it is designed to serve. Nor does this policy stop with the editorial contents. The advertisements in the Directory are accepted by us with the user of the Directory in mind. It has always been our proud boast that our advertisers are selected rather than solicited. Before they appear in the Directory, the editors have made certain that the potential consumer can safely place full confidence in their products.

With this dedication to the public good in mind and because of the many editorial features and improvements constantly being included in the Directory, we believe it wise to devote some space and time towards giving you a clearer, more comprehensive idea of what the Directory contains and how to use these contents to best advantage. First then, we list a short summary of the parts of the book, after which we explain how they may be used.

What the Directory Contains

1. List of the Governing Bodies in Vatican City.

This is a list of all the officials, beginning with the Pope and continuing through the College of Cardinals. The duties of each of the Sacred Congregations and Offices together with its officials are given. A list of the National Colleges in Rome, together with a chronological table of the Popes, completes the Section.

2. List of the Provinces of the United States.

This is a list of all the Archdioceses and Dioceses of the United States arranged under the provinces to which they belong. The names of all Archbishops and Bishops together with appointment and consecration dates are given.

3. Detailed Reports from Archdioceses and Dioceses of the United States.

This section, forming the largest part of the book, gives the most detailed information on the Catholic Church in the United States. Examples of its wealth of information will be given later.

4. Detailed Reports on U. S. Possessions and Those Parts of the World in which American Priests and Religious Labor in Missionary Work.

This section contains substantially the same information on foreign territories as the preceding one does concerning the Catholic Church in the United States.

5. Special Listing of the Organization and Personnel of the National Catholic Welfare Conference.

6. General Statistics on Religious Orders of Men and Women.

In this section each Religious Order lists the number of Provinces it maintains, the superiors of the Provinces, the number of various classes of religious in the province, the number and kind of institutions it serves or maintains and the Dioceses in which its members are working. It is preceded by an exhaustive cross index.

7. A special listing of those societies engaged in missionary work giving the nature of their work, the territories in which their members are engaged and the local boards in various cities which aid or support them.

8. A list of the cities, towns and villages in which there is located a church with a resident priest or a Catholic institution, or both.

This section lists each city, the state in which it is located and the abbreviation of the Archdiocese or Diocese to which it belongs. A key to these abbreviations is given on a special page located between the alphabetical list of places and the alphabetical list of Bishops.

9. List of the Hierarchy of the United States alphabetically arranged, together with their addresses.

10. List of the Hierarchy of the United States arranged according to their seniority.

11. An alphabetical list of the Clergy, which includes all priests, both Secular and those belonging to a Religious Order or Community.

This list gives the diocese to which the priest belongs, the city and street address or institution at which he now resides.

12. Necrology of the United States Hierarchy and Clergy

Here are listed alphabetically all those prelates and clergymen who have died since the last issue of the Directory. The address and diocese of each are given, together with the date of death.

13. A General Summary

This is a general recapitulation of the statistics of each Archdiocese and Diocese. Total numbers for the United States and its possessions are given.

How to Find Things . . . All these things the Directory contains—a wealth of names, statistics and relevant data such as few other books of reference encompass. It is indeed so much matter placed together in limited space that one may be excused a certain perplexity as to the quickest way to secure some particular point of information. A few pointers, then, may not be amiss.

. . . About the General Plan . . . Each of the Reports of the various Archdioceses and Dioceses is alike in so far as the general layout is concerned. There is first a list of Officials. Then the churches in the See city are given, alphabetically arranged. This is followed by a list of the Churches outside the city, alphabetically arranged according to towns. With each Church are listed the schools, missions and stations associated with it. Following this is a listing of the Institutions in the Diocese; first those in charge of Diocesan Clergy, then those in charge of Religious Orders. This last is further divided into Orders of Men and Orders of Women. In the larger Archdioceses, this order may vary in certain cases. After the Institutional listings, there are summaries of the Religious Orders of Men and the Religious Orders of Women in the Diocese, a Necrology listing those priests who have died during the year and, lastly, a Diocesan Recapitulation of Statistics.

. . . About Prelates . . . Let us suppose you want to know something about a prelate. If you know his name, the best place to look first is in the Alphabetical list of Secular and Regular Priests of the United States. This will give his full name and address as well as the Diocese to which he belongs. Upon turning to the Diocese, you will find, usually, the dates of his ordination, appointment and consecration, as well as the dates of his transference in the event he served in any other Diocese. You will usually also find his secretary's name and address, a point of information sometimes very useful. If you want to know what place he would take in solemn procession, consult the Seniority list of Bishops which immediately follows the Alphabetical list of Bishops and immediately precedes the Alphabetical List of Secular and Regular Priests.

. . . About Officials . . . In the event you wish some information concerning Diocesan officials, the Superintendent of Schools, let us say, you will find it in the Administrative Officials section directly under the name of the Bishop in each Diocese. In most cases both home and office addresses are given. You will also discover the degrees which should follow his name and formal address. All the officials connected with the governance of the Diocese are listed in this section. In the event that the address of the official you seek is not given, look him up in the Alphabetical List of Clergy.

. . . About Places . . . The place list of cities and towns in the United States tells you at a glance to just what diocese any particular one belongs. The cities and towns are arranged in strict alphabetical order and are followed by the abbreviation of the Diocese where located. When a town has no post office the correct mailing address or Post Office will be found in italics, immediately following the town desired, e.g. Reno, Iowa Cumberland P. O. DM. The Post Office address will also be found in its alphabetical position with the name of the town where the church or institution is located immediately following in Roman type, e.g. Cumberland, Iowa Reno DM. Different localities have particular ways of abbreviating Rural Free Delivery. You will encounter it as: R.F.D.; R.R.; R. A key to the Diocesan abbreviations used will be found conveniently placed between the alphabetical list of places and the alphabetical list of Bishops.

. . . About Statistics. . . If you are interested in securing statistical information you can find it in the individual Recapitulations at the end of each Archdiocese and Diocese. These Recapitulations give the number of Institutions and the number of people attending them for the entire Diocese. We have taken from these Recapitulations, those figures we consider to be most vital and summarized them in a general Recapitulation giving totals for the entire country. This will be found directly after the Clergy List and Necrology.

. . About Clergymen . . . If you know the clergyman's name, the fastest way to discover his address is to look in the clergy list. This will give you his Diocese and address. If there is a number in brackets in the listing, he is stationed at the Church bearing that number in the city and Diocese indicated. The numbers are inserted only for Churches in the larger cities having ten or more Churches. If you are not sure of his name but know the city or town he is in, look that up in the Alphabetical list of places. This will give you the Diocese.

. . About Religious Order Priests . . . Those priests belonging to Religious Orders are listed at the Churches and Institutions they serve. You will find at the end of each Diocesan report a list of the Religious Communities of Men active in that Diocese and a list of the Churches and Institutions at which they are stationed. If you should desire further information about any particular order you can consult the Index to Religious Orders which directs you to more detailed and comprehensive information concerning the order. Since many Religious Order priests are engaged in Missionary work outside the United States the abbreviation of that province of his order to which he belongs is given, as well as his mailing address.

. . . About Brothers . . . In the United States, as well as in other countries, there are men who, while not ordained priests, live in community in the same manner as Religious Order priests Some of these men are attached to Religious Orders of priests while others have formed their own Religious Community. Thus, in the Society of Jesus, there are ordained priests and brothers. On the other hand the Brothers of the Christian Schools, for example, have no connection with any Religious Order priests. You will find immediately following the Statistics on Religious Orders of Priests a listing of the Orders of Brothers who are independent of Religious Orders of Priests. Those Brothers who belong to Religious Orders of Priests are listed with their Order in the section devoted to Religious Orders of Priests.

. . . About Nuns . . . There are 259 different Religious Communities of Women operating in the United States. To find general statistics on any particular one the first thing to consult is the Statistics of Religious Orders Section. Here you will find the number of Sisters, Postulants, Novices, etc. of each province, the number and kind of Institutions they maintain or serve and a listing of the Archdioceses and Dioceses in which they are represented. If you want to know, therefore, where the motherhouse of the nuns teaching at a certain school is located you have only to look the name up in the Religious Order Section. On the other hand, if you wish to know whether a certain order is represented at a certain school, you have only to consult the list of Religious Communities of Women in the Diocese,which you will find at the end of the report of each Archdiocese and Diocese.

The Complete Edition

As you probably know, the Catholic Directory appears annually in three different forms. Volume One is the United States edition and contains information only on those Dioceses in the United States and its possessions. Volume Two is the Complete edition and contains everything in Volume One to which are added also Diocesan reports for Canada, Ireland, England, Scotland, Wales, Cuba and Mexico. These reports, except for Cuba and Mexico, are similar to those for the United States. There is also a list of Places for Canada which may be used exactly as the United States Place List. Volume Three contains everything in Volumes One and Two and is very substantially bound in cloth.

In this attempt to facilitate your use of the Directory, we have tried to cover all the questions which may arise. However, we realize that there may be some special aspect, peculiar to your work, upon which we have not touched. If this is so, please feel free to call on us for further information. As we have said, the Directory is a work of Public Service. Each year refinements and improvements are added. With your cooperation there will be more of these in the future. It is your Directory and will, ultimately, take whatever form serves you best. Accordingly your corrections and suggestions are warmly welcomed.

The Hierarchy of the Catholic Church, The United States, Alaska, the Hawaiian Islands, Panama, Puerto Rico, the Philippine Islands; Missionary Activity in Africa, China, India, Japan; Religious Orders of Men and Women; Places in the United States having a Resident Pastor; Alphabetical List of Clergy; Necrology.

PART I

Hierarchy of the Catholic Church

The Catholic Hierarchy, or the governing body of the Catholic Church, consists of His Holiness the Supreme Pontiff, assisted by the Sacred College of Cardinals and by several Sacred Congregations, or permanent ecclesiastical committees, of which the Cardinals are the chief members; by the Patriarchs, Archbishops and Bishops; by the Apostolic Nuncios and Delegates, Vicars and Prefects, and by certain Abbots and other Prelates.

HIS HOLINESS THE POPE

BISHOP OF ROME AND VICAR OF JESUS CHRIST,
SUCCESSOR OF ST. PETER, PRINCE OF THE APOSTLES,
SUPREME PONTIFF OF THE UNIVERSAL CHURCH.
PATRIARCH OF THE WEST, PRIMATE OF ITALY.
ARCHBISHOP AND METROPOLITAN OF THE ROMAN PROVINCE, SOVEREIGN OF VATICAN CITY.

PIUS XII

EUGENIO PACELLI

NOW GLORIOUSLY REIGNING

The two hundred and sixty-first successor of St. Peter was born in Rome, March 2, 1876; ordained Priest, April 2, 1899; appointed Apostolic Nuncio to Bavaria, and promoted to the Titular See of Sardes, April 23, 1917; consecrated Archbishop by Pope Benedict XV, May 13, 1917; Apostolic Nuncio to Germany, June 22, 1920. Created and proclaimed Cardinal, December 16, 1929. Appointed Secretary of State, February 7, 1930. Elected Pope, March 2, 1939, crowned March 12, 1939.

VATICAN CITY

By virtue of the concordat signed on February 11, 1929, the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, ratifications of which by the Pope and the King of Italy were exchanged on June 7, the Feast of the Sacred Heart, the complete and independent authority of the Pope to rule in his own possessions was recognized by the State. The territorial possessions of the Holy Father are called Vatican City and within its limits the Sovereign Pontiff's authority is recognized as supreme.

The Sovereign of this small state is His Holiness, the Pope.

The Governor is Marquis Commendatore Camillo Serafini, born in Rome in 1864.

The Apostolic Nuncio to the King of Italy is Monsignor Borgongini Duca, Titular Archbishop of Heraclea.

THE SACRED COLLEGE OF CARDINALS.

The Cardinals, when duly constituted and proclaimed, form the Supreme Council or Senate of the Church. They are advisers of the Supreme Pontiff, and at the death of the Pontiff they elect his successor.

There are three orders of Cardinals, Cardinal-Bishops, Cardinal-Priests, and Cardinal-Deacons; but these orders are distinct from those of the Hierarchy. With very few exceptions, the Cardinal Priests are Archbishops or Bishops, and the Cardinal Deacons are Priests. The Sacred College of Cardinals, when complete, consists of 70 members—6 Cardinal Bishops, 50 Cardinal Priests and 14 Cardinal Deacons.

The Cardinal Bishops take their title from the Suburban Sees of Rome, which are: Porto and Santa Rufina, Albano, Palestrina, Sabina, Frascati, Velletri. The Cardinal Dean has united to his See the See of Ostia. The Cardinal Priests take their title from the "Titular Churches" to which they are appointed: the Cardinal Deacons are appointed to other Churches called "Deaconies." The first Cardinal Bishop is Dean; the first Cardinal Priest is First Priest; and the first Cardinal Deacon is First Deacon of the Sacred College. The Dean has the right of consecrating, and the First Deacon the right of proclaiming and crowning a new Pope. On the death of the Pontiff, the Cardinal Camerlengo has the Administration of the affairs of the Holy See.

(The "creation" of a Cardinal sometimes precedes, even by several years, the "publication and proclamation." The Cardinal is then said to be "reserved in petto," and when proclaimed, he takes the precedence according to date of creation.)

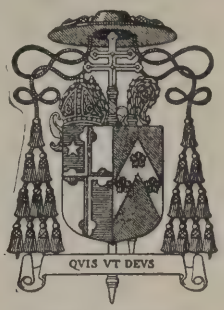
BALTIMORE ESTABLISHED A DIOCESE Nov. 6, 1789; ARCHDIOCESE APRIL 8, 1808. Square Miles = 6399.
Total Population (1940 census) = 2,289,108



Comprises the City of Baltimore and all the Counties of Maryland lying west of the Chesapeake Bay.

By a Decree of the Sacred Congregation of the Propaganda, July 19, 1858, approved by His Holiness, Pius IX, July 25, 1858, "Prerogative of Place" was conferred on the Archdiocese of Baltimore. By the explicit words of said decree of the Holy See the Archbishop of Baltimore takes precedence over all Archbishops of the United States (not Cardinals) in Councils, gatherings and meetings of whatever kind of the Hierarchy (in concillis, coetibus et comitiis quibuscumque) regardless of the seniority of other Archbishops in promotion or ordination. Decree signed by Cardinal Barnabo, August 15, 1858.

WASHINGTON ESTABLISHED ARCHDIOCESE July 22, 1939. Square Miles = 64.

Comprises the District of Columbia.

In virtue of an Apostolic Letter of His Holiness, Pope Pius XII, dated July 22, 1939, the territory of the District of Columbia was separated from the Archdiocese of Baltimore and raised to the dignity of an Archdiocese in its own right to be known as the Archdiocese of Washington. Without prejudice to the prerogative of place enjoyed by the Archdiocese of Baltimore, the Archdiocese of Washington is united with it aeque principaliter. Both Archdioceses are under the jurisdiction of one Ordinary and there is but one Archiepiscopal Curia.

THE CATHOLIC CATECHISM of Cardinal Gasparri has done more to unify catechetical instruction than any other work.

CATHOLIC FAITH
A CATECHISM

PRESS
THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA

Edited by Rev. Felix M. Kirsch, O.F.M. Cap., Ph.D., Litt.D., and Sister M. Brendan, I.H.M., M.A.

1 AUTHORITATIVE SOURCE

CATHOLIC FAITH is based on THE CATHOLIC CATECHISM by Cardinal Gasparri which has been approved for use throughout the Catholic world. The original was compiled by a special body of the Consultors of the Congregation of the Council, under the presidency of the Cardinal Prefect for the purpose that it be translated into the vernacular of the various countries throughout the world.

2 TEACHABLENESS APPEALS TO TEACHERS and PUPILS ALIKE

Teachers, particularly Sisters of the Religious Orders, were first to realize the lucid presentation of CATHOLIC FAITH. Having seen the book demonstrated at various catechetical conferences and hearing of its smooth pedagogy from fellow teachers, they realized that students can more readily absorb the matter of catechism from CATHOLIC FAITH than from any other system.

3 TEACHER MANUALS

CATHOLIC FAITH EXPLAINED, Books I, II and III, include two parts: the first, Essentials in Teaching Religion, which in 58 pages gives the method and spirit of the entire program, while part two takes each particular item, page by page, and supplies the answer in the correct manner of presentation.

4 DURABILITY REDUCES COST

Among catechisms, the past few years have brought about many changes in format. This was started by CATHOLIC FAITH which avoided inexpensive, perishable bindings and first presented sturdy, durable books which last more than one term.

NO OTHER CATECHISM MAKES ALL THESE CLAIMS!

CATHOLIC FAITH, Book I	110 pages	$ .25/.20
CATHOLIC FAITH, Book II	234 pages	.35/.28
CATHOLIC FAITH, Book III	367 pages	.60/.50

ARCHDIOCESE OF INDIANAPOLIS

(Archidioecesis Indianapolitana)

ESTABLISHED A DIOCESE IN 1834; ARCHDIOCESE DEC. 19, 1944. Square Miles = 8,325.
Total Population (1940 Census) = 1,287,813.

Comprises the counties of Bartholomew, Brown, Clark, Clay, Crawford, Dearborn, Decatur, Fayette, Floyd, Franklin, Hancock, Harrison, Hendricks, Henry, Jackson, Jefferson, Jennings, Johnson, Lawrence, Marion, Monroe, Morgan, Ohio, Orange, Owen, Parke, Perry, Putnam, Ripley, Rush, Scott, Shelby, Switzerland, Union, Vermillion, Vigo, Washington and Wayne, and the township of Harrison in Spencer County, in the southern part of Indiana.

The Diocese of Vincennes (now Indianapolis) was established by decree of Gregory XVI, May 6, 1834, and the See was fixed at Vincennes. The territory then comprised the entire State of Indiana and the eastern part of Illinois.

By a decree of Pius IX, January 8, 1857, the northern half of the State was erected into the Diocese of Fort Wayne. The southern half of the State remained the Diocese of Vincennes.

The second Bishop of Vincennes, by Apostolic Brief, was permitted to establish his residence either at Vincennes, Madison, Lafayette or Indianapolis; the See city, however, to remain at Vincennes. This permission was renewed to the fourth Bishop, with the exception of Lafayette.

On the appointment of the fifth Bishop, he was directed to fix his residence at Indianapolis, but the Cathedral and title of the See were continued at Vincennes. By an Apostolic Brief dated March 23, 1898, the title of the Diocese was changed to that of "Diocese of Indianapolis," with the Episcopal See in the city of Indianapolis. By the same Brief the Patron Saint of the Diocese is to remain St. Francis Xavier, the title of the old Cathedral, Vincennes.
